

Please regulate radio industry consolidation and bar deals in which record companies pay radio promoters to play music. Soing this would protect artists' rights to free expression by giving them equal access to airwaves.